Homecoming At Beulah Baptist

Sunday, Sept. 21, is going to be a very special day at Beulah Baptist, Rt. 1, Brookneal as they will observe Homecoming Day and all members, former members and friends are invited to come and join with them in the activities of the day.

Homecoming with begin with Sunday School at 10 a.m. and they hope to have YOU there to start the day off with an hour of Bible study.

Dr. Richard W. McKay, a former pastor, will be guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service and you will want to hear him when he brings the message. Dr. McKay served Beulah many years ago as a student pastor and was well received and much loved by the members. He is now Director of Chaplain's Service for Wake County Medical Center in Raleigh, N.C. Members of the church look forward to having Dr. McKay and his wife come and share this special day.

Mrs. Betty Rhodenizer of Appomattox will present special music during the morning service and you will want to hear her share her testimony for Christ in song.

Following the morning worship service, there will be a picnic at the church and then an afternoon of music which you will not want to miss. It will be a grand day for the Lord and the people at Beulah are looking forward to this day. The public is invited to come and join with them in this special day of worship and fellowship.

Homecoming At Providence Church

Providence Baptist Church in Red House will observe its Homecoming Day on Sudnay, Sept. 21 and all members, former members, and friends are invited to come and share in this special day.

The activities of the day will begin with Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. and you are asked to start the day off right by attending this hour of Bible study. We want to "pack them in" at the 11 a.m. worship service to hear Mr. Leonard Layne, a former member and well known lay speaker as he brings the Homecoming message. Following the morning worship service, a traditional picnic lunch will be served at the church, and you will want to be present for that.

Following the lunch, there will be an afternoon of music featuring the Highland Heights Quartet, the Maysville Baptist Church Junior Choir and the Ladies Duet from Buckingham plus the Providence Church Trio.

It will be a great day for the Lord and you are invited as part of this Homecoming of Friends and renew old friendships and acquainances
